Greetings unto the Great Kingdom of the Outlands;

A cool summer breeze rides across the Outlands' landscape, whispering tales of outlandish deeds and feats of honor. Outlanders have traveled over mountains and across plains, venturing onto foreign soil in combat and mirth. Our foemen met upon fields, were turned into allies by our honor-honed swords and glory-filled poetry. Outlanders journeyed to Northshield, Artemisia and Calontir, winning friendships and exchanging stories of valor. Our allies returned to the Outlands, enjoying our hospitality and traditions. Soon we march onto Pennsic earth, shoulder to shoulder with allies old and new, our once-foeman now kinsmen again.

Congratulations to the populace of our fine kingdom who have been acknowledged for their efforts with recognition. We have offered admittance to the Order of the Laurel to Nadrah bint Lu Lu al-Qadisi, and her answer was heard at Known World Heralds and Scribes.

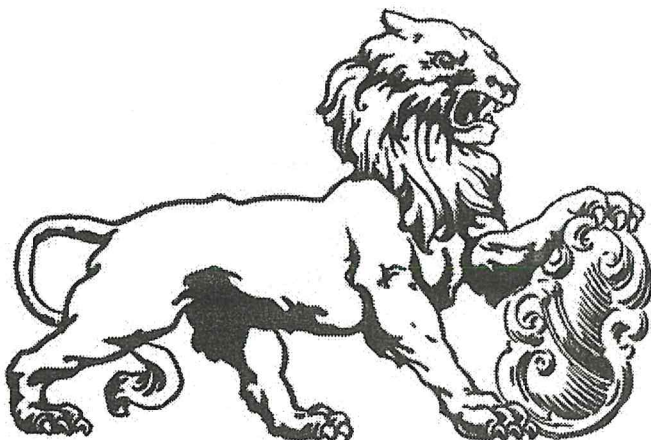

In August, we invite all Court Barons and Baronesses to join us at Baron's War. Enjoy a fun-filled event and perhaps earn your very own beautiful spot of land. The much anticipated Clann War in Nahrûn Kabi-rûn will be a sight to behold by all those able to attend. From the mountains and desert plains, a host of Outlanders ride forth unto the legendary battlefields of Pennsic. If you are able, join us and witness the wonders of the known world within the borders of the Kingdom of Aethelmearc.

The traditions of the Outlands must be kept in our hearts and proclaimed throughout the land. We have need of heirs to carry on the customs of this great kingdom. So it is our duty and pleasure to hold a Crown tourney. We ask all of those who seek entry to our list to petition us, in writing, by August 28th. To continue traditions of the past, we call those Stag's Bloods who are able, to enter a tourney to be proclaimed the Captain of the Stag's Bloods. One tourney will take place at the Silver Pass event and the other tourney will occur at the Talons of Fury event. The winners of each tourney will meet at the Fighter's Collegium to take place at the Stag's Con event in October.

In service to the Outlands,

Hoegaarden II
King

Chiara
Queen

Curia Regis

Greetings unto the mighty populace of the Outlands;

We have heard the wisdom and counsel of the peers and populace of Our great kingdom. We thank each of you who chose to write us of your thoughts and feelings. For those that attended the Curia Regis in the Barony of Dragonsspine, we give our thanks for your patience, counsel and love for this kingdom. We are so proud of those who attended this meeting, your passion and wisdom maintained a strong respect for each other and we commend you. To our faithful guards who stood vigilant for the seven hours, we offer a hearty "Huzzah!" To all of you who dream of high chivalric times recreated in the modern era, we are happy to walk at your side.

We have listened to our kingdom's counsel regarding the issue of Duke Ibrahim and Duchess Ileana and the process of bestowing the accolade of knighthood upon Duke Lycurgus, and have come to the following conclusions. While in many instances it can be argued that the letter of the law was followed, one cannot overlook that our kingdom's customs and traditions were not. We are a proud kingdom, rich in our oral traditions. The customs of our fair lands are what hold us together as Outlanders and shine forth to the known world.

We apologize to all of our populace for not advising, as peers of the realm, Ibrahim and Ileana to the best of our ability. While opportunities to research the ceremony existed, we were too focused on our own coronation ceremony to give it the attention that it deserved. In truth, as peers we each supported the elevation of Duke Lycurgus, but the representation of our support as Crown Prince and Princess was not appropriate. We apologize for any appearance that we may have used our position as Crown Prince and Princess within the ceremony of Duke Lycurgus' knighting. We are sorry that we did not give the ceremony involved our absolute and full attention.

We swore an oath to honor and defend those rights of our peers, as well as those of our populace. While it may not have been their intent, Ibrahim and Ileana have done an injustice to our kingdom by bestowing a peerage in a manner that is counter to our traditions and culture. We feel it is improper for their Graces, or any future monarch of the Outlands, to carry out a ceremony that would leave out several important pieces of a peerage ceremony that is the mark of an Outlands Peer. The accolade of knighthood bestowed upon Duke Lycurgus is not in question, he is a knight. However, the process of bestowing the accolade is the responsibility of the Sovereign and Consort. In this effort, Ibrahim and Ileana did not follow the customs and traditions of the Outlands. In conclusion, Ibrahim and Ileana were wrong in bestowing the accolade of knighthood in the manner in which the ceremony was conducted, but were well within their rights to conduct the knighting of Duke Lycurgus.

Mighty with Justice, Tempered with Mercy,

Hoegaarden II
King

Chiara

Greetings unto the peers and populace of the Outlands.

First, we would like to thank this great kingdom for giving me the opportunity to represent you as your sovereign. I have had a wonderful time during my stay here and hope to return one day.

There are several members of our populace who were concerned about our last act as crown, that being the knighting of Duke Lycurgus. It seems that most of the concern is about the way the ceremony unfolded, rather than the act itself. We would like to first apologize for offending those people who took offense at the ceremony itself. It was never our intent to insult anyone. It has also been brought to our attention that some were upset that they were made to stand during the ceremony. Our populace has great respect for its' royalty and we did not notice that those assembled rose and stood for the Prince and Princess and then waited to be given their ease instead of just "taking" their ease after their show of respect. That was an oversight on our part and we did not realize it until it was too late; for that we truly apologize.

Certain members of the Outlands Chivalry have approached us and said that they would have liked to have known of the knighting prior to the ceremony. We did inform some members of the chivalry of our intent, but did not address the circle as a whole. We did not have a circle that day, but in retrospect, we should have held a quick circle prior to bestowing the accolade of knighthood.

In early March, I told Lycurgus that we, the crown, would like to have him back in the Chivalry Circle and that we were willing to return his accolade to him. We asked Lycurgus to think about this and give us an answer as soon as possible. In late April, a month and half later, Lycurgus told us that he had sought and received counsel and deliberated on the idea of coming out of retirement and thought that it was time he accepted our offer.

When Lycurgus offered his version of the ceremony to us for our approval we saw nothing wrong with it and were excited in the prospect of doing something different. For every peer I have ever made, I felt it necessary to fully include the candidate in their ceremony and supported whatever special requests or adjustments they have made to their own ceremonies, as have many kings we've known over the years have done in the past. The ceremony was written in the style of calling Lycurgus out of retirement, for we felt that his counsel was once again needed in the Chivalry circle. We have always been a supporter of people doing things in a non-traditional manner, if for nothing else than to be original and creative in this game. So, when Lycurgus' ceremony did not call for the knights to come forward, not using the baby knight's chain, no gifting of a sword, and no buffet, at the time we saw nothing wrong with this. This ceremony was not meant to disgrace or discredit the Outlands' order of Chivalry or upset the other peerages or the populace. Looking back on the ceremony, perhaps we should have kept closer to Outlands traditional ceremony.

We apologize for the confusing language in the ceremony regarding representative peerages speaking for a candidate. We are aware that it was Lycurgus' choice to do it this way, but we didn't know that the people who spoke for him at his previous ceremony would be offended by the language used in this ceremony. Certainly his Grace could have found others to speak, easing the discomfort of those who had done so before. Unfortunately, I thought it was an acceptable way to have representation without re-searching who those people might be.

We would request that any who would wish to talk with us personally on this subject, to please seek us out. We apologize again for offending those who were upset; it was not our goal to affront anyone. Thank you all for your support during our reign and we hope for your future forgiveness and understanding.

Long live the Outlands.

Ibrahim al-Dimashqi and Ileana Welgy

Although it seems odd to talk of heirs while Their Royal Majesties' full glory is upon them, our Great King and Queen, being mindful of their duty have declared that a Great Tournament will be held on September 10, AS XXXX in their most loyal Shire of Duthaich Beinne Aird to determine their heirs.

We will have the run of the entire Faire Grounds of the local county. Since the local University is holding a primitive contest involving an oblong spheroid that same day, the Shire encourages those who wish stay in local inns begin to make contacts with those inns as soon as possible. We have been unsuccessful at obtaining special rates due to this so-called "football" contest. However, we will have indoor "camping" space available in our secondary hall (60 x 80 feet). If you wish to use this space, which has restrooms but no showers, the cost will be included in your site fee.

The site is wet (period containers only). There will be a donation lunch on Saturday and feast on Sunday evening will be coordinated by Lord Valeryjan Mistress and Galiana (so you know you won't go away hungry). Reservations for feast are required, and prepayment is greatly appreciated. Feast reservations will close on September 2. If enough people use the site crash space, the shire will offer a breakfast on Sunday.

Since we have the site all night, revels will be held in the same place as feast.

For more information, see the event webpage at: <http://mastergwilim.home.bresnan.net>

Finally, to be successful on the field of battle, one must have dynamic and energetic leadership. As Eric and Birgitta have dutifully served Their Barony and Beloved Crown, the time has come for a much deserved rest. Come join us as they are bid Farewell, and Their Successors ascend the Baronial Thrones to freshly assume Stewardship of Dragonsspine. To this end, we will likely have in attendance the Crown of the Outlands, and hopefully Their Successors, recent Victors of the September Crown Tournament.

Seneschals Office - Kingdom Seneschal

Unto the good and noble populace of the Outlands, greetings!

As of June 25th, 2005, the Kingdom Administrative Policies regarding the minor waiver have changed. The official change can be read in this month's OH. Basically, if your child is a member of the SCA with a blue card (proving that the minor waiver is on file with SCA Corporate), you, the parent, will not need to sign a new minor waiver form at gate for each event you attend.

Master Eric and Lady Birgitta, Baron and Baroness of Dragonsspine, have served their barony admirably and they have chosen to step down and make way for their successors. The polling for the barony of Dragonsspine will be held Thursday, August 4th, 2005. For more information, please see the article in this month's OH.

Crown Tournament is to be held in Duthaich Beinne Aird on the second weekend of September. Please look to Their Majesties for information regarding the format of the tournament and requirements for entry into Their tournament.

For those of you traveling east to celebrate Pennsic, have a safe and fun journey!

Mistress Leah de Montgomerie of Lark Hall

Earl Marshal Office - Minister of the Lists

To the fighters of the Outlands, Greetings!

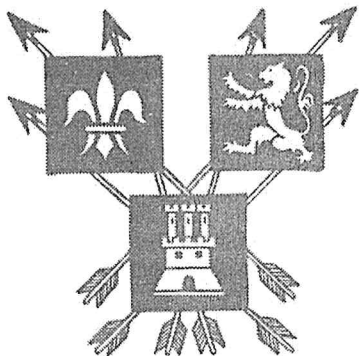

I have recently taken on the position of Kingdom MOL. First, I would like to thank THL Seuilla for her guidance, patience and wisdom during her tenure, and my training. I can only hope to mimic her performance. She has graciously agreed to maintain the Kingdom Armored Combat List, for which I cannot thank her enough. Please remember to check your information on the list to ensure it is kept current. Any changes can be made by your authorizing marshal or local MOL.

I would also like to take the opportunity to (belatedly) thank my deputy, Lord Roderick, for running the Coronation tournaments for me. I was unable to attend, and he stepped in on very short notice.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or concerns. My preference is via email: mol@outlands.org I am happy to assist you in any way possible.

As Ever Yours,

Lady Mariah Abramsdottir

Herald's Office - White Stag Principal Herald

Greetings, fellow Outlanders!

The White Stag decision meeting schedule: E-mail for details – August looks to be a complicated month from this far out.

Thanks to all the heralds and scribes who attended Known World Heraldry and Scribes in July – I hope you all found something new and exciting to take back to your work. I certainly enjoyed meeting those of you I had previously only known by e-mail.

HERALDIC MYTHBUSTING: This month's mythbusting comes courtesy of "Heraldic Myths: Information to Clear Up Misconceptions Involving SCA Heraldry," 2nd edition, compiled by Master Modar Neznanich. His article may be found on-line at: <http://www2.kumc.edu/itc/staff/rknight/Myths.htm>

Myth: The shape of the form you submit your device on, is the shape you must display it in (always). This is false. In period, coats-of-arms were displayed in various shapes including lozenges, heart-shapes, roundels, heater-shield, square, rectangle, etc. The escutcheon (shield) shape is a convenient armorial shape for most designs and perhaps the most commonly recognized. Hence that is the standard shape place on forms. The roundel is also common and used to quickly identify badge forms from device forms. However, the shape on the form of your submission does not limit you on what shape you display your device in.

LOAR RESULTS: The March 2005 LoAR has been received.

Acceptances:

Arianna la boîteuse. Name and device. Or, a pale of mascles interlaced vert between two wheels sable.

Artorius Greyhawk. Device. Azure, a hawk striking argent, on a chief Or a broad arrow inverted between two pairs of arrows inverted in saltire sable.

Charimmos Lakedaimonios. Name and device. Argent, the uppercase letter lambda gules, in base an octopus sable. [The given name rendered in Greek letters is chi-alpha-rho-iota-mu-mu-omicron-zeta. – WS]

Heinricus Land[oe]se. Name.

Lucius Avisius Seneca. Name change from Talore MacConlae. [Former name released.]

Chronicler's Office - Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings Mighty Outlanders!

This will be the second month that we are using the Printer in Tennessee who not only prints the OH, but labels and mails them as well. The printing and mailing for the July Outlandish Herald was a huge success. Thank you to everyone who provided comments back regarding this new printer. If things go as smoothly this month as last month, we will be making the change to this new printer permanent. We have also been able to work out a deal with this Printer so that once a quarter we will be able to have a color cover. If your group ever wishes to sponsor the cover for the OH for a particular month, choose the color of the cover and provide the artwork for that colored cover, the cost to your group will be $100.00. If we as a Kingdom wish to continue with color covers each month, monies generated from fundraising activities and advertising will have to total $1200.00 beyond the stipend that we receive from the SCA Corporate Office.

If you are a member, and you are sure that your membership is current, please contact the SCA Corporate Office if you are not or do not receive a particular month's OH.

The OH is in desperate need of artwork for the cover. If you have any artwork or are willing to donate cover art to the OH, please contact me.

As many of you may know, the process for placing events on the Kingdom Calendar has changed. If you wish an event to be placed on the Kingdom Calendar, email the following information: Event Name, Date(s), Sponsoring Group, Autocrat Name and Phone Number to kingdomcalendar@outlands.org.

To have an event listed as official, to be able to give out awards and have your event announcement published in the Outlandish Herald, you must mail your COMPLETED Event Registration Form to Kingdom Calendar, c/o Barbara Kashinski, 13316 Mountain Road NE, # 1208, Albuquerque, NM 87112 or email your COMPLETED Event Registration Form to kingdomcalendar@outlands.org.

All Event Announcements must be submitted electronically to this office. Paper copies of your Event Announcements will not be accepted by this office.

The deadline for submissions to the OH remain the 1st of each month.

In Service to Crown and Kingdom, I remain,

Baroness Emma of Essex

What is that Award?

Did you ever wonder why a particular award was given?

What the hold of that particular award was styled as?

What the insignia of that award is?

Who has been given that particular award?

Over the next few months, space permitting, those questions will be answered as a new feature is added to your Outlandish Herald: What is that Award?

Each month the Name of the Award, Initials of the Award, Constitution, Badge and bearers of that award will be listed.

Please direct any comments regarding this new feature the Kingdom Chronicler.

Kingdom of the Outlands Award: Sharparrow

Constitution for the Order of Sharparrow

- I. There shall exist in the Kingdom of the Outlands an award, known as the Order of Sharparrow, which may be given by the Crown to those persons who have demonstrated extraordinary skill in the arts and sciences of traditional SCA-style archery. All companions of this order must meet certain requirements. Extraordinary skill in period archery, proficiency in all non-combat archery systems, and rudimentary knowledge of all projectile related activity to include craftsmanship, competition and combat archery so as to ensure a broad knowledge base for all the good people of this great Kingdom to draw from. Other qualifications shall include leadership, appropriate participation level as well as guidance and teaching. Said individuals must always display unquestionable character and courtesies on and off the field.
- II. The holders of this award shall be styled as Archers of the Iron Rain and shall be entitled to place the initials A.I.R. after their names.
- III. The insignia of the Order shall consist of a white bracer bearing the registered badge of the Order: "Vert, on a pale argent endorsed Or a flaming arrow sable fletched vert enflamed gules".
- IV. Arms and precedence:
 - A. The award shall carry with it a Grant of Arms. Companions of the order shall take precedence before simple Grants of Arms.
 - B. If the award is given to a person who bears an award carrying higher precedence than given above, his/her precedence shall remain unchanged.
 - C. If the award is given to a person who has previously received a Grant of Arms, his/her precedence shall date from his/her election to the Order.
- V. The Crown of the Outlands shall consult with such members of the Order as the Crown desires, concerning the recognition of new members of the Order and the furtherance of projectile related activity.
- VI. Amendments to this constitution shall be made by the Crown of the Outlands.
- VII. Companionship of all previous recipients of the Order of the Archers of the Iron Rain is hereby confirmed to carry the Order of Sharparrow.

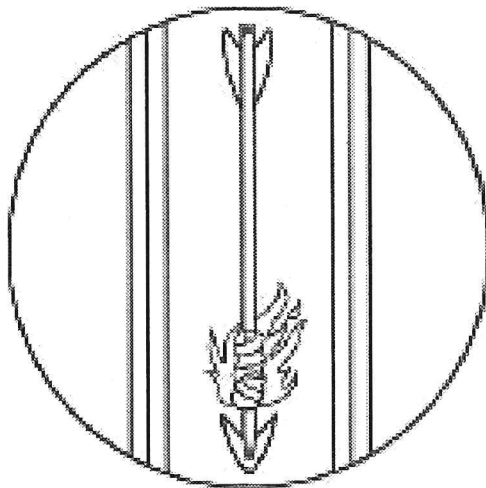

By our hands this 14th day of November, A.S. XXXIII, being 1998 in the Common Era.

The Board of Directors needs your help! We ask that you write or email the Board giving us your comments regarding any of the nominees on this list with whom you are familiar. While all commentary is more than welcome, we find it especially helpful to read your assessments of the nominee's abilities in areas such as working with diverse groups of people, understanding of varied aspects of the SCA, ability to plan and carry through projects to completion, ability to meet deadlines and keep up with correspondence, and past experiences in either SCA or modern world capacities that would be useful on a nonprofit corporation's Board of Directors. We also strongly encourage you to send us the name and contact information of anyone you feel would make a good candidate for the Board of Directors. All commentary is kept confidential, and new Directors never see the commentary made about them. Please address comments to the Ombudsman for Board Recruiting: Lis Schraer, 3651 Hartford St., St. Louis, MO 63116, or send them via email to recruiting@sca.org.

Kingdom Of the Outlands Law Change

Current Policy Reads:

Administrative Policies of the Kingdom of the Outlands

IV. Participation by Minors

A. Any minor attending an SCA event must have a Minor Waiver (see included form) completed and signed by his/her parent or legal guardian. A separate waiver is needed for each event the minor attends. This policy is in effect even if the minor is in attendance with his/her parent(s), and regardless of whether or not the minor is a paid SCA member. Roster waivers are not acceptable for use with minors. It is suggested that groups make copies of the minor waiver form on colored paper to easily distinguish them from adult waivers.

Change to:

A. Any minor attending an SCA event without proof that SCA Corporate has a waiver on file (i.e. a "blue" card), must have a Minor Waiver (see included form) completed and signed by his/her parent or legal guardian. Children without a "blue" card need a separate waiver for each event the minor attends. This policy is in effect even if the minor is in attendance with his/her parent(s). Roster waivers are not acceptable for use with minors. It is suggested that groups make copies of the minor waiver form on colored paper to easily distinguish them from adult waivers.
